

Handbook of Research in NEW Entrepreneurship Education, Volume 3 International Perspectives

Edited by Alain Fayolle, EM Lyon Business School, France and Solvay Brussels School of Economics and Management, Belgium

This unique Handbook takes an international perspective highlighting the different ethos of the world and provides strong insights on how researchers and educators can learn from international practice diversity. Entrepreneurship is a concept based on social acts and creative processes that adds to large macro-economic effects. The contributors recognize the different visions of the world, and how entrepreneurship can function as a positive force have an impact on the way it can be taught, and how people can be educated in the field of entrepreneurship.
